

Please do not relax rules limiting conglomerates' control over the media. Already we are experiencing limited points of view in news and entertainment. Please don't cutoff the voice of this country by giving control of the media to a few.